

A transit and ITS systems for the Going-to-the-Sun Road will be anchored at a transit center to be located on the west side of the park, near Apgar Village. This new facility will consist of parking, rest rooms and traveller information for visitors. This facility will also serve as a primary transit hub and ITS center on the park's west side.

An east side hub will also be identified somewhere in the St. Mary area.

